"Opportunities for Innovations in Indian Steel Industry"

Ahmedabad, A high-level conference on "Opportunities for Innovations in Indian Steel Industry - Towards a Self-Reliant Stainless India" was held during the Steel Technology Festival for Green Steel 2026 in, New Delhi. The conference brought together industry experts, ESG professionals, technology leaders and sustainability advocates to discuss the future of green and sustainable steelmaking in India. The session was moderated by Mr. Yatinder Pal Singh Suri, Co-Chair, CII National Committee on Corrosion Management and Advisor, Metalogic PMSPL Ltd. "The conference focused on the urgent need for sustainability, decarbonization, digital transformation and circular economy practices in the Indian steel sector. Experts emphasized that steelmaking worldwide is entering a major transition phase driven by the global push toward 'green steel,' emissions reduction and energy efficiency." Saud Mr Yatinder Pal Singh Suri, the moderator and stainless steel expert. "The discussions highlighted the growing importance of ESG (Environmental, Social and Governance) principles in industrial operations. Speakers underlined that companies with strong ESG practices are better positioned for long-term sustainability, investment attraction and regulatory compliance." Mr Suri said. Key innovation areas discussed during the conference included, hydrogen-based steelmaking and low-carbon ironmaking, Electric Arc Furnace (EAF) advancements, AI-driven steel plants and predictive maintenance. ### Rubio's visit: America's Delhi diplomacy still carries a missionary complex

There was little ambiguity about the purpose behind US Secretary of State Marco Rubio's Delhi visit. The United States wanted to stabilise a relationship that had visibly drifted over the past year and a half, especially given Delhi's centrality in Washington's larger strategic calculus vis-à-vis Beijing. The timing was revealing. Rubio arrived shortly after US President Donald Trump's high-profile Beijing outreach, which by most accounts did not unfold as per American expectations. Xi Jinping appeared composed, tactically prepared and strategically organised. China once again demonstrated that it could negotiate with the United States from a position of strength rather than insecurity. Historically, whenever Washington encounters strategic resistance from Beijing, it instinctively looks towards Delhi. The Indo-Pacific strategy itself rests heavily on the assumption that Bharat will serve as the democratic counterweight to autocratic China. Rubio's visit also reflected deep anxiety within sections of the American establishment that Trump's erratic tariff wars, his confused Pakistan policy, and his transactional.

Pan IIT Alumni India Launches "Pan IIT AI Niti (Pariniti)"

Ahmedabad, Pan IIT Alumni India (PIAI), the umbrella organisation representing over 500,000 IIT alumni globally, today soft-launched its flagship think tank - Pan IIT AI Niti (Pariniti) - at a curated gathering at Bombay Gymkhana. The think tank has been established to create a powerful, credible, and independent voice for India's Artificial Intelligence ecosystem, covering the full depth of the AI value chain - from semiconductors, energy, cloud infrastructure, and data centres to algorithms, governance, and applications. Speaking on the occasion, Prabhat Kumar (IRS), Chairman of Pan IIT Alumni India, said: "Pan IIT AI Niti (Pariniti) is a significant step towards building India's thought leadership in Artificial Intelligence. Through this initiative, Pan IIT Alumni India aims to bring together IIT alumni, industry leaders, researchers, and policymakers to contribute towards responsible AI growth, innovation, and nation building." The think tank will be chaired by the Chairman of Pan IIT, with subject matter experts drawn from the IIT alumni community serving as Core Members. The initiative will operate through five to six specialised verticals, each focusing on a critical layer of the AI ecosystem. Approximately 50-60 top professionals - including CEOs, CXOs, unicorn founders, venture capital partners, senior civil servants, and leading academics - will be inducted as Members after a rigorous profile scrutiny. ### Asit Kumarr Modi's Taarak Mehta Ka Ooltah Chashmah Continues Its Unmatched Run as India's Most Loved Family Entertainer

Ahmedabad, Even during the high-decibel IPL season, Taarak Mehta Ka Ooltah Chashmah - the iconic, longest-running daily TV show has continued to keep audiences hooked with a series of light-hearted, relatable and curiosity-driven story arcs over the past month. From society-level chaos to comedy-led suspense tracks, the show has maintained its trademark mix of humour and family entertainment. Known for its wide variety of engaging and relatable topics, the show continues to connect with audiences across age groups, making it one of the most widely accepted family entertainment properties in the country. As per Ormax StreamView rankings for the week of May 18-24, 2026, Asit Kumarr Modi's Taarak Mehta Ka Ooltah Chashmah emerged as the second most-watched property on OTT in India with 4.2 million viewers, standing just behind IPL 2026 and ahead of several major OTT originals and big-ticket releases, including Dhurandhar. The rankings once again underline the 18-year-old show's massive popularity among Indian audiences despite intense competition from live sports and premium digital content. (20-4)

Narayana Hospital Ahmedabad Launches Radiation Oncology Centre

Ahmedabad, Narayana Hospital, Ahmedabad today took a significant step in strengthening cancer care access in Gujarat with the launch of its new Radiation Oncology Centre. The facility was inaugurated by Hon'ble Chief Minister, Gujarat, Shri Bhupendra Patel, who graced the occasion as Chief Guest. The centre is designed to bring advanced, precise, and faster radiation therapy within reach of patients across the region, eliminating the need to travel far from home for critical cancer treatment. During the launch, Dr. Devi Shetty, Founder and Chairman, Narayana Health, said, "The burden of cancer is rising, and the margin for delay is shrinking every day. Early and precise intervention can be the difference between recovery and irreversible progression, and every patient deserves access to that, close to home. This centre is our commitment to the people of Gujarat that they will not have to wait, or travel, for the care they need." Mr. Hemant Bhatnagar, Facility Director, Narayana Hospital, Ahmedabad, said, "This centre represents our conviction that world-class cancer care must be available where patients live, not just far from home. ### PLATINUMRx CROSSES 10 LAKH USERS, SAVES INDIANS OVER 128 CRORES ON MEDICINE BILLS

Ahmedabad, PlatinumRx, India's most trusted platform for affordable branded-generic medicines, has crossed a significant milestone, serving 10 lakh unique patients served across the country, with total savings of over 128 crore rupees generated for its users through access to quality generic substitutes. For millions of Indians living with diabetes, hypertension, and heart disease, monthly medicine bills of 2,000 to 5,000 rupees are not an exception. They are a quiet, relentless burden, one that pushes over 70 crore people to skip doses, delay refills, or quietly go without. PlatinumRx was built to change that arithmetic. The platform offers one carefully selected, high-quality branded generic substitute per medicine, sourced directly from reputed pharmaceutical companies, with the 100% same salt composition as branded originals, dispensed by licensed pharmacists, and delivered to 20,000-plus pin codes across India. One-day delivery in metros. One to three days everywhere else. Through the platform, patients are saving 50-60% on their monthly medicine bills without compromising on quality or safety. (19-10)
